The Bulletin

Norwich, Saturday, Jan. 30, 1909.

VARIOUS MATTERS.

Friday, almanac day, promised a diversity of weather.

This is what one provision dealer calls "popcorn weather."

Many of the carnations worn in honor of McKinley day had an after-the-bell look.

Last evening's sleet storm proved one of the most disagreeable of the winter.

Some of the church societies in Connecticut towns held McKinley entertainments on Friday evening.

The pastors of the Roman Catholic diocese of Hartford held their next conference on the first Tuesday in March.

Mid-year examinations in many of the colleges and preparatory schools are affording some of the students a few days' vacation at home.

This year, the annual meeting of the Telephone Employees' Mutual Benefit society is to be held in New Haven on the afternoon of the second Tuesday in February.

Claude C. Russell, of New Haven, formerly of Taftville, will address a general teachers' meeting at Broadway school, Monday, at 4 p. m. Topic, Arithmetic—adv.

Local members have been notified that the annual meeting of the Connecticut Library association will be held at Yale university, New Haven, on Wednesday, February 2.

Rev. P. C. Wright will preach at the Central Baptist church Sunday morning upon "The Mark of a Mature Christian." His evening topic will be "The Impression We Make Upon Friends"—adv.

The executive officers of the Connecticut Postmaster's association met in Bridgeport Thursday with Postmaster Marigold as host, and selected February 22 as the place and time for the annual meeting of the body.

This week's Catholic Transcript, referring to the honor conferred upon Very Rev. Thomas J. Shanahan, S. T. D. J. U. L., just appointed rector of the Catholic university, notes that he was a member of the board of judges of the Hall of Fame.

A bill introduced Tuesday in the house at Hartford this week provides that in actions for libel the defendant shall be required to prove that the statements made by him were true and not merely, as under the present law, that he had reason to believe them to be true.

At this week's meeting of the Connecticut secretaries' association, action favoring a new roster of the Connecticut regiments that participated in the civil war was taken. A bill embodying the sentiments of the association will be presented to the present general assembly.

Local members of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners have been notified that an important representation for a souvenir book alleged to be published under the auspices of the Williams branch of the brotherhood.

BROUGHT TO NORWICH HOSPITAL

Deputy Sheriff Williams of New Haven suffers from injury.

By an order passed in the probate court, Deputy Sheriff David E. Williams of New Haven, the agent for the Connecticut Soldiers' and Sailors' Relief association, has been committed to the Norwich hospital for the insane.

Some weeks ago, while driving in Naugatuck, Mr. Williams was in a runaway accident, his head being severely injured. He was in a hospital for some time and appeared to be all right again.

It is said that lately, however, Mr. Williams has shown signs of violent mental trouble and it is said that he has threatened to buy a revolver and shoot his wife and others. It was thought best, after an examination by Drs. Cahill, McDermott and Verdi, to send him to Norwich.

Mr. Williams has a host of friends in New Haven who will be deeply grieved to learn of his illness, and who will hope for a speedy recovery.

Unclaimed Letters.

List of unclaimed letters at the Norwich, Conn., postoffice for the week ending January 30, 1909, follows: William Browning, C. K. Brownell, Charles Chubb, and J. C. Adams. The letter to Mr. Brownell is from Miss Louise Darling, Fannie Held, Mrs. Louise Jacobson, Mrs. G. S. Johnson, William Keables, C. C. Latham, F. S. Till, Robert, Mrs. C. D. Noyes, Miss Isabel Petrone, Mrs. Clara Pratt, Mrs. T. R. R. T. A. Robinson, Mrs. George Quick, Miss Alice Tuttle, John Waterman, A. White.

Patrolman 23 Years.

Patrolman James D. Gaffney of New London has made application to be placed on the retired list. He has served 23 years in the department and has been growing feeble lately. For quite a while Officer Gaffney has been doing duty as station keeper, when his condition physically was such that he should not have been on duty.

Guests of Commissioner Noyes.

County Commissioner Charles D. Noyes will dine the representatives and senators of New London County at Hotel Garde, Hartford, on February 2. A few friends of the commissioner not in the dinner assembly will be guests. The dinner is given in appreciation of the unanimous renomination of the commissioner by the members of the county caucus.

Toastmaster J. J. Desmond.

Attorney J. J. Desmond has been engaged as toastmaster at the banquet of the Mystic board of trade to be held Tuesday evening, February 16. The guest of honor of the occasion will be, as already announced, Lieut.-Governor Weeks. The principal speakers will be Rev. Winifred Scott of Worcester and Attorney Prentice Chase of New Haven.

Will Eliminate Crossing.

The railroad commissioners have issued orders for the elimination by under-grade cuts of the Babcock crossing in the town of Sterling, about 2,300 feet south of the Oneco station, the road to go under the tracks about 370 feet east of the present crossing, and the passage to be 25 feet wide and 13 feet in the clear.

Poultry Prizes at Hartford.

On black orpingtons at the poultry show in Hartford Tyler Cruttenenden received second on hen, first on cockerel, second and third on pullets. W. E. Matthews won fifth on hen, third and fourth on cockerels.

On 45 exhibits this season Mr. Cruttenenden has taken 40 prizes.

PERSONAL

Harvey Kingsley, formerly of this city, was a visitor in town on Friday.

William M. Williams of Church street, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, was more comfortable on Friday.

Miss Grace Hudson, who has been the guest of Miss Barber of Laurel Hill, has returned to her home in Erie, Pa.

Miss Alice M. Appleton, formerly of Norwich, soloist with the Royal band of Venice, was in the city on Wednesday.

A Wauregan correspondent notes that J. W. Atwood has so far recovered from his recent illness as to resume his duties at the Wauregan Co.'s office.

FUNERALS.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Gould.

The funeral of Mr. and Mrs. James Gould was held at 11 o'clock Friday morning from their late home, No. 152 Broadway, at which there was a large attendance of relatives and friends. Rev. J. E. Brown, rector of Trinity Episcopal church, conducted the services. The scripture lesson and a hymn were read by Rev. Dr. Lewis Pratt, pastor emeritus of Broadway Congregational church. Beautiful floral forms in large numbers were sent by friends. The remains were committed to the earth in the Mount View cemetery, where the committee on funeral arrangements, Messrs. J. C. McPherson, John C. Averill, Albert S. Comstock and Daniel F. McFarland, were taken to the funeral home by the Rev. Dr. Lewis Pratt, pastor emeritus of Broadway Congregational church.
